Together we fight for everyone's opportunity for a better financial future.

We will do this together — with customers, partners and colleagues. We will fight for others, not against: We will stand up for and champion everyone's access to opportunities. The status quo is not good enough ... we believe every individual and every community deserves access to financial opportunities. We are determined to support both individuals and communities in reaching a better financial future. We know that reaching this future depends on our actions today.

Like our Purpose Statement, Voya believes in being bold and committed to action. We are committed to a work environment where the differences that we are born with — and those we acquire throughout our lives — are understood, valued and intentionally pursued. We believe that our employees own our culture and have a responsibility to foster an environment where we all feel comfortable bringing our whole selves to work. Purposefully bringing our differences together to positively influence our culture, serve our clients and enrich our communities is essential to our vision.

Multi Asset Strategies & Solutions Analyst

Getting to Know the Opportunity

This role is a part of our Voya Investment Management Entry Level Program. This program, which will begin in July 2026, is designed to develop the careers of entry level employees and provide you with the unique opportunity to begin your investment career while gaining hands-on experience and on-the-job development and training.

As client needs evolved toward multi-asset, efficient investment solutions, Voya established the Multi-Asset Strategies and Solutions (MASS) Group to manage investment strategies that depend on multiple sources of return and/or require engineered separation of market returns (beta) from active returns (alpha). As part of those responsibilities, the MASS team also provides a broad array of derivative-based and other risk management strategies that allow reshaping of risk and return profiles to meet the objectives of pension, defined contribution and retail investors. The team presently handles over approximately $50 billion in a range of products and solutions across liability-driven investing, portable alpha, asset allocation, target date funds, model portfolios, retirement income, multi-manager funds and hedging strategies.

Key Responsibilities

- Develop and analyze cross-asset, fundamental and macro-economic data, building out of quantitative models and researching investment metrics.
- Support the Strategy Research team in building out portfolio construction, new idea framework and partner with other Quantitative Analysts to build out Analytical Toolkits.
- Complete ad-hoc data analysis, work with members of the respective teams to develop time series models, presentations and newsletters.
- Support the Manager Research & Selection senior analysts in developing and preparing analyses, analytical tools, board reports and recommendations to the PCT on managers.
- Conduct research to help with developing investment portfolios, and prepare analysis, papers and presentations for external and internal partners.
- Collect quantitative and qualitative data from sources such as Bloomberg, Factset and various online resources, and prepare data-driven presentations that present complex concepts in understandable terms.
- Review industry surveys, white papers, and annual reports of investors in order to understand investment industry needs.
- Work with Portfolio implementation team.
- Conduct comparison analysis on investment strategies from external managers, broker-dealers and across the Voya platform.

Knowledge & Experience

- Applicants should be graduating with an undergraduate degree in December 2025 or spring/summer of 2026.
- Bachelor's degree in business, finance, or related field, willingness to pursue a CFA designation.
- Strong academic standing (GPA of 3.0 or higher preferred).
- Passionate about a career in financial services.
- Fundamental understanding of Accounting Principles.
- Excellent analytical skills.
- Strong computer skills including MS Office Excellent communication skills.
- Strong business orientation.
- Excellent customer orientation.
- Solid planning & organizing skills.
- Teammate, positive attitude, eager to learn in a supporting role.
