PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Darla Moore School of Business

Columbia, SC

FP&A and Budget Modeling Initiative, Dean's Office

March 2026 – Present

- Reporting directly to the dean, built a driver-based financial model connecting enrollment and hiring decisions to multiyear revenue and costs; reconciled FY2022–FY2026 published university budgets, including tuition revenue and support-cost allocations.
- Translated university tuition allocation rules into financial-model logic, enabling leadership to assess the revenue implications of admissions and enrollment decisions across different cohort sizes, residency profiles, and major mixes.
- Developed a bespoke web-app prototype through AI-assisted development, translating my Excel model's financial scenarios into an interactive interface designed for leadership to assess the multiyear revenue, expense, and margin impact of enrollment growth, student residency and major mix, and staffing decisions.

BNP Paribas

Miami, FL

Global Markets Summer Analyst

June 2025 – August 2025

- Completed a nine-week rotational program across Macro and Equity business lines, analyzing structured note payoffs linked to a defined-volatility index and evaluating return scenarios, downside risk, and investor outcomes.
- Analyzed drivers of the USD/JPY exchange rate using Bloomberg, including interest rate differentials, central bank policy expectations, and market sentiment.

Forte Capital Group – Wealth Management & Investment Solutions

New York, NY

Summer Intern

June 2024 – August 2024

- Prepared suitability-focused investment materials for $5MM+ high-net-worth clients, synthesizing portfolio information into client-ready presentations aligned with investment objectives and risk tolerance.
